BOYS STAT TENN PREV

It was assumed from the beginning of the boys tennis season that Bloomington Jefferson is its second Minnesota AA championship in the mainly on the strength of its lineups.

The Jaguars weren't in singles. They were unbeatable, with defending champion Matt Peplinski Aaron Dvorak at No. 3 and Ryan Woo at No. 4.

Jefferson was considered suspect in doubles, but matter what happened. Jefferson's prospect pulled a chair out from under Dvorak as he was down in the lunch room put his right (tennis-pla) down to stop his fall approximately two fore Jefferson was to Prairie in the Section 6.

Fortunately for the their No. 1 doubles team Hultgren and Brett D won eight consecutive. They won again when they against Eden Prairie a crucial point in Jefferson tory over the Eagles.

The next day, Hult Dahloff effectively clinched victory over Wayzata in final.

Today, Jefferson, ran in the metro, will play!
